

ROCK POINT

Pinot Noir

2009

The light cherry red color is a distinctive characteristic of Pinot Noir. The intense aromas of raspberry and cherry are followed by a full body mouth feel made of fruits and spices. The finish is slightly tannic, which shows the wine's ageing potential.

■

ROCK POINT

Pinot Noir

2009

The light cherry red color is a distinctive characteristic of Pinot Noir. The intense aromas of raspberry and cherry are followed by a full body mouth feel made of fruits and spices. The finish is slightly tannic, which shows the wine's ageing potential.

■

ROCK POINT

Pinot Noir

2009

The light cherry red color is a distinctive characteristic of Pinot Noir. The intense aromas of raspberry and cherry are followed by a full body mouth feel made of fruits and spices. The finish is slightly tannic, which shows the wine's ageing potential.

■

ROCK POINT

Pinot Noir

2009

The light cherry red color is a distinctive characteristic of Pinot Noir. The intense aromas of raspberry and cherry are followed by a full body mouth feel made of fruits and spices. The finish is slightly tannic, which shows the wine's ageing potential.

■

ROCK POINT

Pinot Noir

2009

The light cherry red color is a distinctive characteristic of Pinot Noir. The intense aromas of raspberry and cherry are followed by a full body mouth feel made of fruits and spices. The finish is slightly tannic, which shows the wine's ageing potential.

■

ROCK POINT

Pinot Noir

2009

The light cherry red color is a distinctive characteristic of Pinot Noir. The intense aromas of raspberry and cherry are followed by a full body mouth feel made of fruits and spices. The finish is slightly tannic, which shows the wine's ageing potential.

■